RAISED SEAL NOT REQUIRED

This official University transcript is printed on acid-free paper and does not require a raised seal.
New Official Transcript Changes

1. The career has been added to the transcript label in the upper left-hand corner; e.g. “UNDERGRADUATE ACADEMIC TRANSCRIPT”

2. The University seal now appears at the top of the page to the left of “University of Pittsburgh”. Image has been centered and high resolution images added.

3. Page numbers and Document ID have been right justified to align with transcript margins

4. Header line has been aligned with margins

5. The student name has been moved from the body to the header section and the font size has been increased.

   The student id has been moved from the body to the header section just below the student name.

   If a student’s current last name differs from their last name while attending school, the text, “Current last name: <LAST NAME>”, appears just below the line with the student id.

6. The Pitt campus address, including branch campuses, is now displayed based upon the default campus value of the person logged into PeopleSoft who is processing the transcript request.

7. The degree now appears in bold text.

   The degree conferral date now appears in the MM/DD/YYYY format.

6. The Pitt campus address, including branch campuses, is now displayed based upon the default campus value of the person logged into PeopleSoft who is processing the transcript request.

8. The degree GPA has been added just below Confer Date (only undergraduate students only).

9. The Academic Program History section separates each student program with a solid, bold line.

10. The date a student either matriculated or became active in a program appears in the MM/DD/YYYY format.

11. The course subject font size has been increased to improve readability.

12. The course description font size has been increased to improve readability.

13. The registrar signatures were re-imaged and formatted to occupy the same amount of space and appear darker to improve readability.

14. The address in the Send To field is now vertically aligned with the name of the recipient.

15. The career totals section is separated from the last term and the test/transfer/other credits with a solid, bold line immediately above and below the section.
